
RAILS GIRLS WASHINGTON, DC

JUNE 13, 2013

WORLDWIDE

Rails Girls (HTTP://RAILSGIRLS.COM/) is an international movement inspiring female entrepreneurs and developers by giving them the tools to build their ideas. There have been over 60 international workshops with 15 more planned in 2013.

WASHINGTON DC

Rails Girls DC(HTTP://RAILSGIRLSDC.COM) has held two successful workshops in the past. So successful, a Rails Girls DC Meetup has been created to provide regular and continued support for all who want to build their own ideas through Ruby on Rails.

SPONSORSHIP

Sponsoring Rails Girls DC is a great way to get involved, make a difference, and create the future for all those in tech, not just females. If you want to get access to great potential talent, promote your brand, your product or are looking to promote the female STEM community - you should support us!

We are creating an unforgettable workshop that leaves attendees and coaches inspired to keep building and keep innovating. Past Rails Girls DC Workshops have produced CTO's, CEO's, technical project managers, and developers right here in the DC Tech community. You can get involved with the event on several levels. Email us at RAILSGIRLSDC@GMAIL.COM and let us know which level is right for you!
